ONE COMPANY AROUND THE WORLD

We are Native Prime, a multilingual localization company specifically catered to the gaming industry.

We are a cluster of monolingual companies located in different countries around the globe. No matter what the source language of your game is, we can provide you with the languages you need.

For us, game localization is more than just translations and voice recordings, it's about preserving the original emotional experience.

CONNECTED LOCALIZATION

As a global company, we offer multilingual services, a single interface, and combined expertise & know-how...

... and as a single company, we are native language service providers, having a close connection to the target languages and an intimate knowledge of the local culture.

This approach allows us to turn your game into a successful global experience.
